Third Sunday of Lent
March 4, 2018

The Gospel of today is the story of the Samaritan woman and her encounter with Jesus. As I read her remarks, I thought that she wasn't even listening to Jesus. My next thought was "are you listening to Jesus?" I wrote down just the words of Jesus, then I applied them to myself. It was a useful exercise in really listening.

The words of Jesus were spoken to the woman but are meant for us all:

"If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you give me to drink, you would have asked Him and He would have given you living water.

Whoever drinks of the living water will never thirst. The water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life.

The time is coming and is now here when true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth.

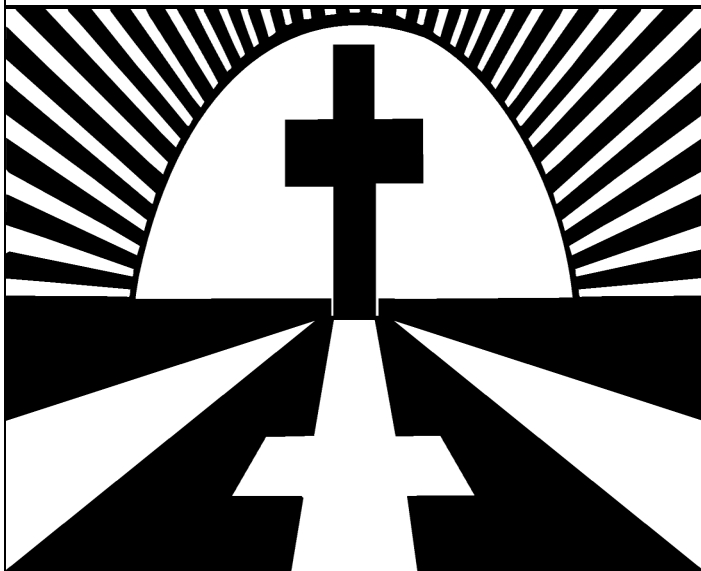

I AM He, the one speaking to you.

I have food to eat of which you do not know. My food is to do the will of Him who sent me and finish His work."

After the woman left, the community came to hear Jesus. After the two days He was with them, they declared Him Savior of the world. They listened with open hearts.

May the eternal words of Jesus continue to nourish us during this Holy Lenten Season.

Respectfully,
T. Rios

The Archdiocese of Santa Fe has issued directives regarding liturgical practices during the 2018 flu season. During the Mass celebration the following steps will be taken:

During the Sign of Peace, instead of shaking hands or hugging, as is practiced in some parishes, it would be best to simply nod your head and avoid bodily contact.

- When praying the Our Father, please do not hold hands. Simply extend your hands toward Heaven or fold your hands.
- Holy Communion will not be received under both species, just the Consecrated Host, not the Chalice.
- Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion should wash their hands just prior to distribution Holy Communion and should wash them immediately after distribution. If it is easier, an anti-bacterial gel can be used.
- During the Flu Season those receiving Communion are encouraged to receive the Consecrated Host in the hand rather than the tongue.

If you are sick, sneezing or coughing, it would be best for you to stay home. You are welcome to take advantage of the Sunday TV Masses which are available in English and Spanish. It is not a sin to miss Mass on Sundays if you are ill.

Due to these directives only two (2) EMHC's will be needed at the liturgical celebrations and these will be implemented at San Miguel & missions immediately. Where more than two EMHC's have been scheduled only the first two to sign in will be needed.

•If you have a family member, friend or neighbor who is ill and would like the sacrament of anointing for the sick please call the church.

•If you have a family member or know of someone who is ill and unable to come to church that wishes to receive Communion, to please call the church office to have them placed on a list.
