

Old San Miguel Mission

One of The Oldest Catholic Churches in the United States

Mission Statement

“We Strive to Bring People Closer to God.”

(Adopted August 5, 2008)

Parish Vision Statement

We, the faith filled members of San Miguel Parish and its Missions, a part of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, find strength, unity and grace in the Celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. As the voices and hands of Jesus in our time, our purpose is to express God's grace by offering Christian Love and Service to each other and to everyone we meet. We reach out to the world in prayer, action and deeds in unity with the Holy Roman Catholic Church.

Fifth Sunday of Lent
March 18, 2018

If you are still struggling with Daylight Savings Time and that whole spring forward thing you can blame an Englishman named William Willet.

It was Willet, an English builder and outdoorsman, who is responsible for Daylight Savings Time. In 1905, while on horseback, he noticed that a lot of fellow Londoners slept through the best part of the summer day. So he proposed moving the clock forward an hour during the summer months. His idea caught on, and it was eventually adopted by England in 1916 and by the United States two years later.

There is a lot of debate these days about whether or not Daylight Saving Time is efficient, or if it saves money, or if it costs us.

But one thing that can't be debated: it gives us something we desperately need right now; LIGHT.

Spring, and its new light, is fast approaching. We are about to turn a corner. And it is happening to us in the liturgy of this week's gospel. Jesus speaks of light: "If one walks during the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of the world. If one walks at night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him."

It is a light that will soon shine on all of us. And not just because of Daylight Savings Time. Next week we will celebrate Palm Sunday and then Easter which is the ultimate celebration of Light and Life.

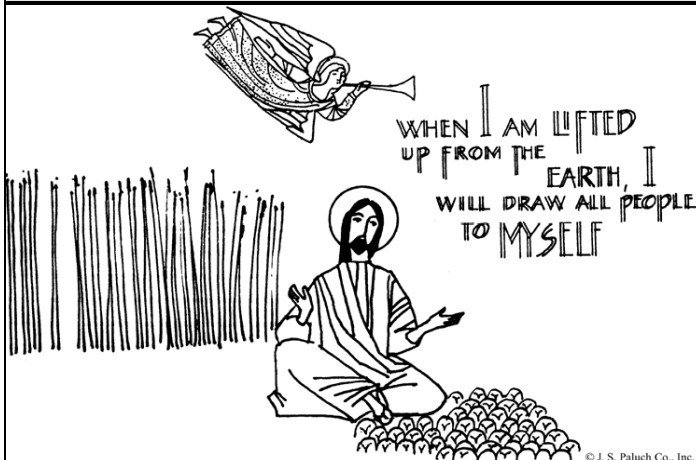

Our 40 day Lenten journey is almost over. There is still time to rediscover the zeal that we all had on Ash Wednesday, when we wore the mark of penitence on our foreheads. Have we been able to continue our commitments in our hearts and on our consciences? If not let us reconcile ourselves with God and with each other.

We have an extra hour, what will we do with it?

In two weeks we will be embraced by the Light of Christ at Easter. What will we do with that?

God bless you;

Deacon Nick

In Celebration of the San Jose Mission Fiesta Mass
Saturday, March 24, 2018 at 7:00 P.M.

A BBQ will be held immediately following the Mass

The Archdiocese of Santa Fe has issued directives regarding liturgical practices during the 2018 flu season. During the Mass celebration the following steps will be taken:

During the Sign of Peace, instead of shaking hands or hugging, as is practiced in some parishes, it would be best to simply nod your head and avoid bodily contact.

- When praying the Our Father, please do not hold hands. Simply extend your hands toward Heaven or fold your hands.
- Holy Communion will not be received under both species, just the Consecrated Host, not the Chalice.
- Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion should wash their hands just prior to distribution Holy Communion and should wash them immediately after distribution. If it is easier, an anti-bacterial gel can be used.
- During the Flu Season those receiving Communion are encouraged to receive the Consecrated Host in the hand rather than the tongue.

If you are sick, sneezing or coughing, it would be best for you to stay home. You are welcome to take advantage of the Sunday TV Masses which are available in English and Spanish. It is not a sin to miss Mass on Sundays if you are ill.

•If you have a family member, friend or neighbor who is ill and would like the sacrament of anointing for the sick please call the church.

•If you have a family member or know of someone who is ill and unable to come to church that wishes to receive Communion, to please call the church office to have them placed on a list.
