2nd Sunday of Easter
(Sunday of Divine Mercy)
April 8, 2018

In today's 1st reading, from the Acts of the Apostles, we're told how the early Church was of one heart and mind. Everyone shared what they had for the good of all. During this Lenten Season, we worked on improving our almsgiving, one of the three forms of Penance. This practice should be a year round event, not just during lent.

In the Book of Deuteronomy, 30:15-20, Moses is exhorting the people, as they are preparing to enter the Promised Land, to love God and keep his commandments, statutes and decrees, and they would be blessed in the land they were entering. If they didn't, they would perish and not have a long life. In our 2nd reading from the 1st letter of St. John, we hear that "everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ, is begotten by God, and everyone who loves the Father loves also the one begotten by him." What can we do to show our love for God and his Son? We obey his commandments and follow the precepts of the Church, so that we too can enter the Promised Land.

To help us keep the commandments, since the time of Christ, we've been given many resources to help us along the way. Our Blessed Mother Mary, through St. Dominic, and the Lourdes and Fatima apparitions, has told us of the power of daily reciting the Holy Rosary. We need to pray that our prodigal children return to the Church. We need to pray for peace. We need to pray for a conversion of America. Jesus himself, through St. Maria Faustina, gave us the Divine Mercy Chaplet. Jesus wants to shower us with His Divine mercy. All we have to do is pray for it.

Most importantly, Jesus gave us the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist on Holy Thursday at the Last Supper. In today's Gospel, Jesus breathed on his disciples and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." This is our Sacrament of Reconciliation.

We have been given everything we need to attain our eternal salvation. Let's be ready so that when we stand before the Lord we will hear the words found in Matt 25:34b, "Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

Peace, Robert

Volunteers do not have to be members of the Catholic Daughters. Anyone is Welcome. Thank You!

The Archdiocese of Santa Fe has issued directives regarding liturgical practices during the 2018 flu season. During the Mass celebration the following steps will be taken:

During the Sign of Peace, instead of shaking hands or hugging, as is practiced in some parishes, it would be best to simply nod your head and avoid bodily contact.

- When praying the Our Father, please do not hold hands. Simply extend your hands toward Heaven or fold your hands.
- Holy Communion will not be received under both species, just the Consecrated Host, not the Chalice.
- Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion should wash their hands just prior to distribution Holy Communion and should wash them immediately after distribution. If it is easier, an anti-bacterial gel can be used.
- During the Flu Season those receiving Communion are encouraged to receive the Consecrated Host in the hand rather than the tongue.

If you are sick, sneezing or coughing, it would be best for you to stay home. You are welcome to take advantage of the Sunday TV Masses which are available in English and Spanish. It is not a sin to miss Mass on Sundays if you are ill.

•If you have a family member, friend or neighbor who is ill and would like the sacrament of anointing for the sick please call the church.

•If you have a family member or know of someone who is ill and unable to come to church that wishes to receive Communion, to please call the church office to have them placed on a list.
