Third Sunday of Easter
April 15, 2018

Well, the colored eggs are gone and the chocolate Easter bunnies have all been eaten. But we, believers in the risen Lord, continue to celebrate His resurrection, until Pentecost, through this season of Easter. Our readings remind us of this; the celebration of this most important of all events.

Our Gospel tells us of His resurrection; "Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones." We believe because we believe the testimony of those who walked with our resurrected Lord. We believe because He walks with us when we are troubled. We believe because He talks with us when we talk with Him in our prayers.

And why is the resurrection so important; because it points the way. We will all overcome death as well.

But here and now, I must avoid sin; sinner though I am. In our reading from the Acts of the Apostles, "Repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away." And if I am weak and sin none-the-less, "But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one. He is expiation for our sins," Yes, Christ died for our sins and then He was resurrected. And we, with our sins expiated, will follow along the path Christ has blazed. And all we have to do is ask to be forgiven. Is this so hard?

Your brother in Christ,
Jeff Altig
