Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist
June 24, 2018

I am sure that all of you are aware that there is only six months until Christmas. I know we are in the hottest months of the year, and the days are the longest of the year, and many of us wish that the days were cooler.

Why would we think about Christmas? Because today we meet another miraculous infant: the one who will grow up to prepare the way of the Lord. Today we celebrate the Nativity of St. John the Baptist.

This is a phenomenal feast – and a rare one. Only three times during the year does the Church celebrate a birthday: for Jesus, for His mother, and for John the Baptist. John is in illustrious company, and this serves to remind us just how important he is to our salvation history.

When we consider the circumstances surrounding it, the Nativity of John the Baptist is almost as full of wonder as the nativity of Jesus. Like Jesus' birth there is great mystery. There was an angel who announced it, and parents who hadn't planned on it, and a name for the baby that was chosen by God.

In a remarkable moment in this Gospel, Elizabeth defied family tradition with one clear and direct statement. "He will be called John." She was able to make a leap of faith and give this child the name for which he was destined.

John is an ancient Hebrew name rich in meaning for his parents and for us as well. Some translations have it as "Gift of God" or "Graced by God". But the interpretation that I like, the name means "God is gracious."

In giving an aging, childless couple a new life....
God is gracious.

In making what seemed impossible possible.....
God is gracious.

In making miracles where we least expect.....
God is gracious

Despite our hardships and misgivings, our problems and setbacks let us remember these three words; God is gracious. It is his grace that sustains us.

God bless you;

Deacon Nick
