Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 23, 2020

The season of Lent is upon us. Lent begins on Wednesday, and today's readings prepare us for our journey toward getting closer to the Lord. The readings today all have a theme of forgiveness. When we are called to forgive, at first it would seem that the benefit goes to the person receiving the gift of forgiveness. Forging others is; in reality, is for our own benefit. When we hold a grudge against someone, we are only hurting ourselves. We are closed to the love of God when we are holding on to anger and hate. We are unable to see the beauty of God around us, and we miss the blessings that God sends us when our heart is holding on to the negative acts of others.

The first reading warns against taking revenge or holding on to a grudge. When we act in love, the love we receive from God, we are able to live in peace. If we decide to take revenge, it becomes an endless cycle. No one wins in the end. When we forgive, we are showing others just a small taste of God's love. We can evangelize more by our actions than by preaching. The second reading reminds us that we are all God's children, he loves us all equally and wants us to share that love with each other.

The readings today remind me of a homily given by Fr. Bill Sanchez when there was a terrible accident and some teenagers were hit by a drunk driver. Fr. Bill reminded us that we were all hurt by the actions of the other person, and the lives of the people who lost their child to this accident would never be the same. He also said that this other person is also a child of God. He is waiting for this other person to come to him. This is something I have always carried in my heart.

Our heavenly father loves us all equally, he will never withhold his love from any one of us, no matter how hard it is. When we are hurting, it is hard to even think about forgiveness. God can though. This week, as we begin to think about how we can come closer to God, think about the people in your life that have hurt you. If you are holding on to anger, come to God in prayer. Let this Lent be a Lent that you receive peace. Give up the anger, the hurt, offer it to God and open yourself to the wonderful blessings that God's forgiveness brings.

May God Bless You! Have a wonderful Lenten season.

Pilgrimage For Healing

In September of this year Archbishop Wester declared the period between September 14, 2019 and April 10, 2020, to be a period of pilgrimage, with El Cerro de Tomé as one of the pilgrimage destinations. San Miguel parishioner, Ricardo Berry, whose father built the Calvary monument on El Cerro de Tomé, is organizing a group pilgrimage to El Cerro during the Lenten season. The proposed pilgrimage for healing would consist of about a ten mile walk, beginning at the intersection of State Highway 47 and Highway 309 (East River Road) to the summit of El Cerro de Tomé. The pilgrimage route will pass by the Immaculate Conception Church in Tomé where the group will take a scheduled break for rest and prayer. Pilgrims who are not able to walk the entire route can join the group there for the final two miles.

Proposed Pilgrimage Schedule (times are approximate / date to be determined)

- 8:00 a.m. Initial prayer service at San Miguel
- 8:30 a.m. Carpool from San Miguel to starting point
- 9:30 a.m. Arrive at starting spot and begin walking to El Cerro de Tomé
- 1:30 p.m. Arrive at Immaculate Conception Church. Meet other pilgrims who opt for the shorter walk
- 3:00 p.m. Begin climbing El Cerro de Tomé / Pray the Stations of the Cross
- 4:30 p.m. Complete the climb and Stations of the Cross
- 5:00 p.m. Carpool back to Socorro
- 6:00 p.m. Concluding prayer service at San Miguel

The journey itself will consist of contemplation and personal prayer during walking, and group prayer and singing during occasional rest stops. Participants will provide their own water and food. Additional details, including a date, will be developed with input from people who wish to participate. If you would like to participate in this pilgrimage, either as a pilgrim or in a support capacity, please contact Ricardo at 575-838-2111 / 505-274-6750 or by e-mail at: sherik@sdc.org
