First Sunday of Lent
March 1, 2020

After his baptism, Jesus spends forty days in the desert, fasting and praying. When Jesus is at his weakest, the devil appears and presents three temptations to Jesus. First, the devil tempts Jesus to use his power to appease his hunger, then the devil offers Jesus all the kingdoms of the world if Jesus will worship him, and lastly, the devil tempts Jesus to put God's promise of protection to the test. In each case, Jesus resists, citing words from Scripture to rebuke the devil's temptations.

Each temptation that Jesus faces offers us insight into the spirituality we hope to develop as we begin the forty days of the Season of Lent. We can trust God to provide for our material needs. We worship God because God alone has dominion over us and our world. We can trust God to be faithful to his promises. Jesus' rejection of the devil's temptations shows that he will not put God to the test. Under the authority of Scripture, Jesus rebukes the devil by proclaiming his confidence in God's protection and faithfulness.

This Gospel highlights for us one of the central themes of the Season of Lent. We are dependent upon God for all that we have and all that we are. Anything that leads us to reject this dependency or to distrust its sufficiency, is a temptation from the devil.

Jesus' responses to the temptations of the devil teach us how we can respond to temptation. As we start our journey through Lent, this Gospel calls us to adopt the same confidence that Jesus had in the face of temptation: God's word alone will suffice, God's promise of protection can be trusted, and God alone is God.

During Lent, we should take our discipline a step further and begin to ask ourselves what it is in our lives that is keeping us from having a better relationship with God and His Holy Church. If we take an honest look at our lives and our relationship with the Lord, all of us can certainly find some things that shouldn't be there. As we begin our bodily and spiritual discipline of Holy Lent, let us find what those habits, temperaments, pleasures of the world, what our sins might be, and let us give up those things for Lent. Let us commit that those distractions which are keeping us from the relationship with God that we should have will not return to our lives after Easter, let us pledge to get rid of them once and for all.

Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert

Pilgrimage For Healing

In September of this year Archbishop Wester declared the period between September 14, 2019 and April 10, 2020, to be a period of pilgrimage, with El Cerro de Tomé as one of the pilgrimage destinations. San Miguel parishioner, Ricardo Berry, whose father built the Calvary monument on El Cerro de Tomé, is organizing a group pilgrimage to El Cerro during the Lenten season. The proposed pilgrimage for healing would consist of about a ten mile walk, beginning at the intersection of State Highway 47 and Highway 309 (East River Road) to the summit of El Cerro de Tomé. The pilgrimage route will pass by the Immaculate Conception Church in Tomé where the group will take a scheduled break for rest and prayer. Pilgrims who are not able to walk the entire route can join the group there for the final two miles.

Proposed Pilgrimage Schedule (times are approximate / date to be determined)

- 8:00 a.m. Initial prayer service at San Miguel
- 8:30 a.m. Carpool from San Miguel to starting point
- 9:30 a.m. Arrive at starting spot and begin walking to El Cerro de Tomé
- 1:30 p.m. Arrive at Immaculate Conception Church. Meet other pilgrims who opt for the shorter walk
- 3:00 p.m. Begin climbing El Cerro de Tomé / Pray the Stations of the Cross
- 4:30 p.m. Complete the climb and Stations of the Cross
- 5:00 p.m. Carpool back to Socorro
- 6:00 p.m. Concluding prayer service at San Miguel

The journey itself will consist of contemplation and personal prayer during walking, and group prayer and singing during occasional rest stops. Participants will provide their own water and food. Additional details, including a date, will be developed with input from people who wish to participate. If you would like to participate in this pilgrimage, either as a pilgrim or in a support capacity, please contact Ricardo at 575-838-2111 / 505-274-6750 or by e-mail at: sherik@sdc.org
