Fourth Sunday of Lent
March 22, 2020

In this holy season of Lent, we learn from the Book of Samuel how God chose David, a youth and younger than his brothers. As David's life progresses David is not perfect, he sins before God.

This is where we see the beautiful Psalm 51 which is a psalm of contrition and prayer for God's forgiveness. We heard this Psalm on the First Sunday of Lent.

In the Second Reading, St. Paul speaks of the baptized as children of light. To walk in the light of Christ brings goodness and truth. We must stay away from works of darkness and sin. Lent is a good time to reflect on this.

In our Gospel the Pharisees are repeatedly questioning a poor man who was born blind but now he can see. He tells them that a man called Jesus healed him. Later Jesus returns to the man born blind. Because of what Jesus tells him, he now not only can see but has been given the gift of faith.

I read an article called "Keep Walking" and it reminded me of the traditions we have in our area. Many families are seen on pilgrimage near the end of Lent. Might it be that the Holy Spirit is saying to us, "Keep walking church"? It could be that our God is healing us on our journey of faith.

I wish you all the Lord's Blessings of Peace.

Respectfully,

T. Rios
