Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord
April 12, 2020

The covid-19 pandemic has turned the entire world upside down. However, one truth not affected is, Christ is Risen. He is Risen Indeed. It has been an unusual Lent. We have not been able to attend Mass or special Lenten services. We have prayed in solitude in our homes. As I write this article in the latter part of March, I am unsure whether we will be able to observe the Triduum and celebrate Easter Mass together. However, the Risen Christ, our reason for hope and joy, cannot be taken from us. So, even if we cannot gather together as a parish family, we can celebrate Easter with prayer and family traditions.

Our Easter traditions depend on where we are from. Traditions provide comfort and stability in times of uncertainty because they remind us of our roots, and the people and memories we hold dear. Many of these Easter traditions are based on the Resurrection because they are symbols of new and abundant life. The egg is commonly used because it is a symbol of new life. A chick's breaking out of its shell symbolizes Jesus' breaking out of the tomb providing the way to Eternal Life. Also, the Easter Bunny, which originated in Germanic and Nordic countries, is frequently used because it symbolizes abundant life because of the rabbit's fertility.

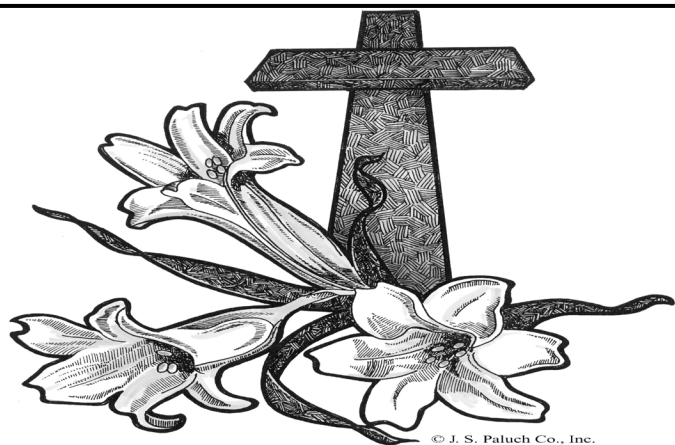

In Scotland, families go on picnics during which the children roll hardboiled eggs down grassy hillsides. Usually the egg cracks as it rolls down symbolizing Jesus' rolling the stone away from the tomb and its being opened.

In France, children build nests out of leaves, moss, or grass and place them outside in yards or gardens. The children hope that the Easter Bells, les cloches de Pâques, not the Easter Bunny, will fill them with chocolate eggs. I had not heard of the Bells before and this tradition comes from the fact that church bells are not rung between Holy Thursday and Easter. According to legend, the church bells fly to Rome to be blessed by way and scatter them in the gardens. Upon their return to the churches on Easter, the Bells ring out to announce the Resurrection of Christ.

A parishioner's family is from Croatia and they celebrate Croatian, Greek, and Ukrainian traditions. From her Croatian roots her family takes a basket of symbolic and sumptuous Easter foods to be blessed at Easter Mass. These foods will be eaten on Easter and include colored eggs, salt, vinegar, sausage or bacon, cheese carved in the shape of a lamb, and Croatian braided Easter bread made to resemble a swaddled baby. Her family plays a traditional Greek Easter game of cracking hard-boiled eggs at the dinner table. Two "opponents" try to crack each other's egg saying, "He is Risen;" answered by, "He is Risen Indeed." The person with the uncracked egg then takes on the next challenger. She and her family make Pysanky eggs, a Ukrainian tradition of artistically applying wax designs to eggs and dyeing them in four stages. The finished eggs are varnished and kept or given as heirloom gifts.

So, no matter how we celebrate Easter amid this pandemic, we realize that the world is not turned upside down because Christ is Risen. He is Risen Indeed. Alleluia.

With a grateful heart I wish you and your family a very Happy Easter.
Ann
