

Old San Miguel Mission

One of The Oldest Catholic Churches in the United States

Mission Statement

"We Strive to Bring People Closer to God."

(Adopted August 5, 2008)

Parish Vision Statement

We, the faith filled members of San Miguel Parish and its Missions, a part of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, find strength, unity and grace in the Celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. As the voices and hands of Jesus in our time, our purpose is to express God's grace by offering Christian Love and Service to each other and to everyone we meet. We reach out to the world in prayer, action and deeds in unity with the Holy Roman Catholic Church.

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time
(Father's Day)
June 21, 2020

In today's Gospel, Jesus elaborates on the depth to which our Heavenly Father knows us, even to the point of knowing how many hairs are on our head. Our Heavenly Father knows us better than we know ourselves. With this in mind, Jesus asks us to acknowledge him before others with the promise that Jesus will then acknowledge us before our Heavenly Father. Today, on Father's Day, Jesus' message calls out to husbands and fathers to use the tools of prayer, forgiveness, and mercy to find our way to our Heavenly Father. Just as Jesus has called men to the priesthood to serve His Bride the Church, Jesus also calls men through baptism to be priests of the domestic church, the church of the home. A husband and father should exercise his priestly ministry through the offering he makes of himself and his daily activities. This offering is united to Jesus' offering in the Eucharist. This offering is made by their daily work, prayers, apostolic endeavors, their ordinary married and family life, their mental and physical relaxation, and even the hardships of life. All of these become spiritual sacrifices acceptable to our Heavenly Father through Jesus. Just as the main function of the priest is to offer sacrifice, then the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass should lead husbands and fathers to an intimate and personal relationship with our Heavenly Father, uniting them so closely to Jesus that the Eucharist becomes the very center of their spiritual and family life.

Husbands and fathers must accept the responsibility of living the Gospel in faith and proclaiming it in word and deed, without hesitating to identify and denounce evil. Catholic parents are the primary and indispensable catechists of their own children. Fathers are not only called to preach the Gospel but also, and above all, to live the Gospel by setting a good example for their children. If our children see us living the Catholic faith with fidelity and joy, then we can be sure that our example will be worth more than a thousand words and we will have confidence that our love for Christ will be written into the hearts of our sons and daughters. When we do this, the Catholic faith will become more than a fond memory that fades with time. A father's living witness to covenant intimacy will become his enduring legacy, a precious gift for his children, and a sure sign of hope in our Heavenly Father's endless mercy and love.
