Church Visitors

The church has been open to welcome people for the last five months. We have volunteers on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 12—3 pm. During that time 116 parishioners have come by, and 169 visitors have been welcomed. Many states are represented and the foreign countries of India, France, the Netherlands, Australia, and England have visited our historic church. Thanks to all the volunteers!

WELCOME

San Miguel Parish Welcomes You and invites You to call or visit the Church Office to Register in the Parish.

If you're not sure if you are registered, or wish to receive Church contribution envelopes, please come in or call the office. Perhaps your family has grown, or your children have moved away. Records need to be updated. Children ages 18 and over should register as adults.

Religious Education
Grades K – 12th

Registrations for the 2026-2027 CCD classes are now being accepted.

Registration Forms and schedules are available in the Church office.

1st & 2nd year First Holy Communion and
1st & 2nd year Confirmation students are required to register each year.

Please register your children early.

Call the Church office if you have any questions.

Religious Education is an ongoing process and important for Children to become more familiar with our Catholic Faith. It shouldn't end when children receive their 1st Holy Communion and start up again years later to receive their Sacrament of Confirmation.

We encourage all parents to continue to register their children for CCD classes throughout their school years. We are blessed to offer Religious Education starting with Kindergarten through 12th Grade.

For parents who wish to learn more about our Faith, consider coming to classes with your child or attending programs and classes San Miguel offers to increase your understanding of the Faith.

Our Children are the future of the Church!
