

Parish Vision Statement

We, the faith filled members of San Miguel Parish and its Missions, a part of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, find strength, unity and grace in the Celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. As the voices and hands of Jesus in our time, our purpose is to express God's grace by offering Christian Love and Service to each other and to everyone we meet. We reach out to the world in prayer, action and deeds in unity with the Holy Roman Catholic Church.

Solemnity of Pentecost
June 4, 2017

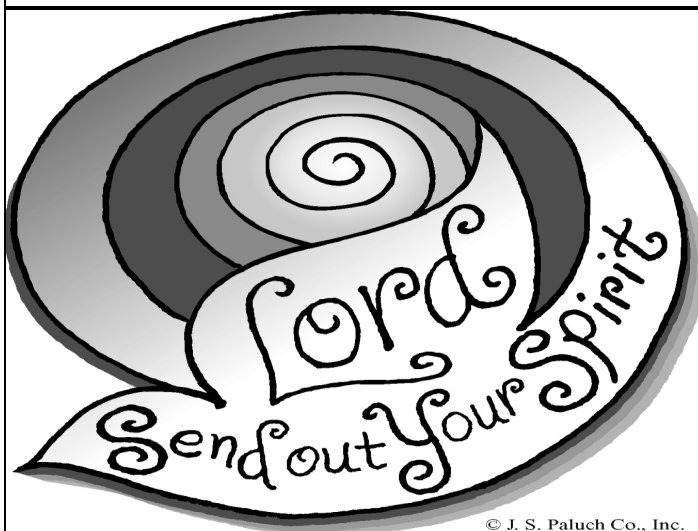

It is one thing to be locked in a room with no exit. It is another thing to lock yourself in a room because you believe that the world beyond the door is hostile, and that if you leave the room you will meet with certain death. The world may not get into your room, but neither can you get out.

In today's Gospel, this is the scene John writes to depict the condition of the disciples following the death of Jesus. Since the crucifixion, they have been bunched together behind locked doors. It was an assembly gathered together in fear. Into this room of trapped people, Jesus comes with peace. He breathes the Holy Spirit on his disheartened followers. As the risen Lord breathes on them, the disciples breathe in the Spirit.

The Holy Spirit is the breath they take on Easter Sunday evening, the breath that gives new heart to all of them. Only in the gift of the Spirit is fear changed into freedom. Only in the Spirit are the disciples empowered to understand the past anew and see the future with hope. The same Spirit of God is in our midst here. As St. Paul says, it is the same Spirit 'working in all sorts of ways in different people'. There is a variety of gifts, and that great variety emerges from the one Spirit in which we were all baptized. Part of our own task is to discover how the Spirit has gifted us in individual ways, and to appreciate the Spirit's different gifts in others.

Today, we are all gather in one room here. There is an exit. Before we go, let us invoke the Spirit to awaken us to the gifts He has graced us with, and thank Him for their variety. When we do that, we can all go in peace. Today, as we celebrate the birthday of the Church, let us reflect on the better ways we can assist the Church in her mission in the propagation of faith.

Fr. John
