

Old San Miguel Mission

One of The Oldest Catholic Churches in the United States

Mission Statement

“We Strive to Bring People Closer to God.”

(Adopted August 5, 2008)

Parish Vision Statement

We, the faith filled members of San Miguel Parish and its Missions, a part of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, find strength, unity and grace in the Celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. As the voices and hands of Jesus in our time, our purpose is to express God’s grace by offering Christian Love and Service to each other and to everyone we meet. We reach out to the world in prayer, action and deeds in unity with the Holy Roman Catholic Church.

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 30, 2017

It is not possible to go through life without some painful things happening to us. Some of these things we bring on ourselves. Some other things we suffer at the hands of others, while some others are things that happen through nobody's faults. Wherever these things come from, they may bring us to a stage where we think that there is no redemption, that nothing can be salvaged, that everything has gone down the river and is irretrievably lost.

Thus, we fall a prey to feelings of hopelessness and self-pity. We begin to doubt ourselves, to doubt life, and even to doubt God.

Well, for anyone who ever felt like this, St. Paul in our second reading of today tells us that God has a saving plan, a purpose, which everything serves. He can turn everything to the benefit of those who trust in Him. He can bring good out of our pain, even out of our sins. This is not to say that God wills bad things to happen to us. No, but when bad things do happen, God helps us not only to pick up the pieces, but to reap a harvest from the wreckage.

God can help us to transform our worst fault into a virtue, our worst misfortune into our greatest blessing. However, in our pride or just in our sense of hurt, we may throw away the things that can bring us closer to God and help us to grow. From painful experiences and difficult times, we learn that God is always faithful and can bring good out of anything. If we trust Him, and have patience, we will see with our own eyes the truth of what Scripture says: 'God makes all things good of those who love Him' (Romans 8:28).

God sees us more clearly and knows us better than anyone else. He sees our wounds and sorrows, the scars we carry in our hearts. He will be good to us in the end, both in this world and in the next. Life is unintelligible and unbearable without God. A close relationship with God is the real treasure. It gives us a sense of who we are, and where we are going. Only God can give us what we are looking for. If we find God, we find all.

Fr. John
