Mission Statement

“We Strive to Bring People Closer to God.”

(Adopted August 5, 2008)

Parish Vision Statement

We, the faith filled members of San Miguel Parish and its Missions, a part of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, find strength, unity and grace in the Celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. As the voices and hands of Jesus in our time, our purpose is to express God's grace by offering Christian Love and Service to each other and to everyone we meet. We reach out to the world in prayer, action and deeds in unity with the Holy Roman Catholic Church.

THE COST OF DISCIPLESHIP

Religion has become just 'religion', so respectable that its acceptance involves neither risk nor strain. Religion should challenge and stretch one to one's limit and beyond, so that thereafter, one will have new standards by which to judge oneself. There is a religion of devotion, and a religion of commitment. A religion of devotion is a religion of comfort, and is often centered on self rather than on others. A religion of commitment is religion of challenge, of risk, of selflessness.

Jesus said to his disciples, "Unless you take up your cross and follow me, you cannot be my disciple". The work 'cross' has been softened, so that the saying of Jesus has lost its force. The cross does not mean our arthritis, our indigestion, that difficult relationship, at least not in the first place. These are things which come to us in spite of ourselves. The 'cross' in the New Testament means that suffering which comes into our lives because of the choices we have made for the kingdom. In this sense, it is always something we choose.

In the Gospel, Jesus asks for commitment from his followers. "If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, he must renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me---anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it."

For the committed Christian, suffering is not a likelihood; it is a certainty. Being a disciple is a serious business. Yet, this does not mean that suffering is something Christians should seek. Jesus did not seek suffering; Gethsemane makes that clear. But suffering will inevitable be part of Christian life as it was part of Jesus' life.

In our first reading, we see Jeremiah's faithfulness to his God-given mission, and what that faithfulness cost him. In the Gospel, we see the faithfulness of Jesus, and the kind of faithfulness that is demanded of those who would follow him. Following of Jesus means faithfulness in the same mission of Christ; concern for others in whatever manner, the caring gesture, the kind word. God does not overlook the painful decision, the unspoken sorrow, the secret suffering. There can be much heroism in ordinary life.
