Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 1, 2017

We have the freedom to say 'Yes' or 'No' to God. But this means that we are responsible for our actions. We sometimes abuse our freedom, but God in His goodness calls us to repentance.

The parable of the two sons is addressed to all of us Christians. Its purpose was to defend Jesus' invitation of sinners and outcasts to the Kingdom, in the face of sneers of the religious establishment. The first son in the parable represents sinners. Like him they originally chose to go their own way but then repented and took God's way, and so entered the Kingdom. The second son represents those who feel that they do not need repentance in their lives. Like him, they promised to work for God but failed to do so, and so have excluded themselves from the Kingdom. Repentance is a necessary disposition for entry into the Kingdom. The theme of sin and repentance is also dealt with in the first reading. The parable also echoes a favorite theme in Matthew: the spirit in the religious person between saying and doing. Hence, its relevance for Christians of every age.

My special thanks to you all for your relentless service to God through the Church. Be assured of my prayers and the prayers of the Church. I wish you all a happy feast of our Patron Saint –San Miguel.
