Parish Vision Statement

We, the faith filled members of San Miguel Parish and its Missions, a part of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, find strength, unity and grace in the Celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. As the voices and hands of Jesus in our time, our purpose is to express God's grace by offering Christian Love and Service to each other and to everyone we meet. Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 15, 2017

I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life

Our celebration of St. Michael's feast day does not need to end with the conclusion of our Fiesta. We can continue our celebration by praying the prayers of the Chaplet of St. Michael; beautiful prayers that honor St. Michael and the Choirs of Angels. The prayers can be found at:

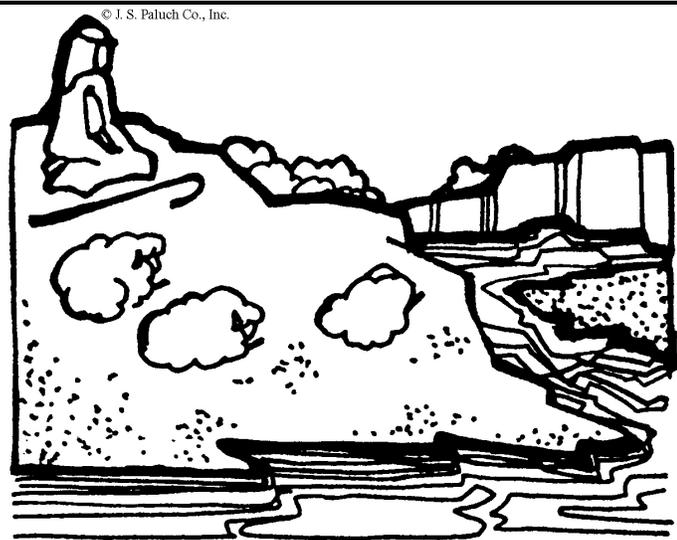

<https://www.ewtn.com/Devotionals/prayers/chaplet-of-st-michael.htm>

Now to the readings; and, what contrasting messages are to be found in this week's readings.

We start with readings of joy and the Lord's love of us. "On this mountain the LORD of hosts will provide for all peoples a feast of rich food and choice wines, juicy, rich food and pure, choice wines. All people. Then to a classic Psalm, "Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil; for you are at my side" Again, He will be there for each and every one of us. Finally, "My God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus" Christ extends His infinite love to each of us.

Then we turn to the Gospel. Much more dark. The king to the man who does not honor the king's invitation to the wedding feast, "Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth." Ugh! This does not sound very friendly. Where is our God of love and patience; offering to walk with us through the dark valley. But aren't we really hearing the same message as above. God's love is there for everyone. His invitation into paradise is available for all. All we have to do is accept the invitation. Sinner though I am, I am being invited into paradise. Decline the invitation and well The choice is mine. It is also yours.

Your brother in Christ,
Jeff Altig
