

Old San Miguel Mission

One of The Oldest Catholic Churches in the United States

Mission Statement

“We Strive to Bring People Closer to God.”

(Adopted August 5, 2008)

Parish Vision Statement

We, the faith filled members of San Miguel Parish and its Missions, a part of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, find strength, unity and grace in the Celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. As the voices and hands of Jesus in our time, our purpose is to express God's grace by offering Christian Love and Service to each other and to everyone we meet. We reach out to the world in prayer, action and deeds in unity with the Holy Roman Catholic Church.

31st Sunday in Ordinary time
November 5, 2017

“So whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold new things have come.”
2 Corinthians 5:17

It is November. On our farm and farms throughout the region the summer season is at an end. The final cutting of hay is baled and put in barns. The fields are irrigated for the last time. The outdoor farmers' markets are over for another season. The chile roasters are put away. There are still things to do; red chile is drying for later use, garlic is to be planted and fields need to be plowed. It is a time to reflect.

The days are shorter and there is a definite drop in the temperature. The smell of wood smoke is evident in the air. The Sand hill cranes are returning for the winter. We are looking forward to a slow- down in activity, and looking ahead to Thanksgiving, Advent and Christmas.

The change in seasons is a wonderful experience for me. It is a reminder of the circle of life which is so powerful if we allow it to be. It is a great time to reflect and to be thankful for the rich blessings God gives to us. The great English author Charles Dickens said, “Reflect on your blessings of which every man has many—not on your misfortunes of which all men have some.”

Just as this change of season is happening, our readings this week ask us to reflect on how we are doing in our relationship with God and with each other. Perhaps this is the season in which we work on our spiritual lives. Maybe this autumn we increase our participation in the sacraments, especially the sacrament of reconciliation. I feel we can all reach out to a friend or relative that we have had some difficulty with in the past. It is a time of change; can we make the most of it?

God Bless you;
Deacon Nick
