From the Desk of.....Fr. John
Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 21, 2019

The first reading and the Gospel of today are hospitality stories. Hospitality was an esteemed virtue in the ancient world. It is still a highly regarded and very necessary virtue today.

In the first reading we see how, when God and two heavenly companions suddenly appeared to Abraham, he reacted with instinctive hospitality and God rewarded his hospitality. This sets the scene for Martha and Mary who welcome Jesus to their home. We see the contrast between Martha's activity and Mary's quiet devotion to the Lord. It is not that what Martha does is unimportant. It is just that Mary has chosen something even more important. Her priority is to listen to the word of Jesus.

The story of Martha and Mary can be seen as a parable in action. Whereas the parable of the Good Samaritan stressed the importance of action, or practical love, in the life of a disciple, the story stresses the importance of contemplation. If we could spend some quiet time with God, our lives would be calmer, less driven by anxiety and worry, deeper and richer. In fact, everything would benefit—our spiritual life, our relationships, even our work. Action and contemplation are not meant to be contrasted. Both are necessary and have to be integrated into life.

Matthew 25 Ministry

The Medical Missionaries of Mary wrote to thank us for our donations to Casa Visitation in Honduras:

In January they wrote that our donation assisted a support group for victims of domestic violence. They tell of Esperanza and her family who were able to free themselves from an abusive situation and now live happily in safety.

In April they wrote that because of our support they are able to help elderly people who are in the streets, alone and abandoned. They tell of Abuela Olympia who is 96 years old and destitute with no family to care for her. Because of donations like ours, the sisters are able help her with food, medicines and a listening ear.

How Can I Help:

- Donate needed items which may be left at the parish office;
- Become a member of the ministry (contact the parish office, at (575) 835-2891); and
- Pray for the work of the ministry and those in need.

Needed items:

- Nonperishable food;
- Small pop-top cans of fruit;
- Bar soap;
- Personal Hygiene items;
- Insect repellent;
- Lip Balm;
- Diapers, size Newborn, 3, 4, 5, and 6;
- Baby wipes and Diaper rash ointment; and
- Baby blankets.

*"For I was hungry and you gave me food.
I was thirsty and you gave me drink.
I was a stranger and you welcomed me..."
Matthew 25:35*
