Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord
April 5, 2020

“The crowds preceding him and those following kept crying out and saying, “Hosanna to the Son of David, blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, hosanna in the highest.”
(Matthew 21:10)

As we recall the Palm Sunday liturgy we will remember that the Gospel of the spreading of the palms is proclaimed outside the church, and is at the beginning of the celebration. The congregation has palms that are raised and the priest and deacon bless them. Then all enter the church as Jesus did on entering the city of Jerusalem and there is great joy amongst the people.

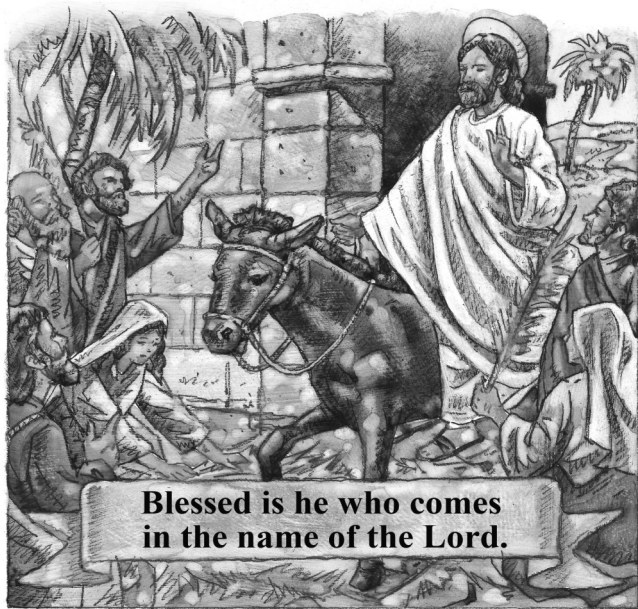

The people at that time 2000 years ago were celebrating Passover, and so there was much reflection on what the Jewish people had gone through and the escape from Egypt was forefront on their memories. God had rescued them from slavery. They hoped that a savior would free them from their current captors; the Romans. The sight of Jesus arriving in humility and majesty inspire the people to honor him as a king entering the city.

This begins Holy Week in the Church throughout the world. Unfortunately this year there will not be public celebrations or beautiful liturgies. The beauty of San Miguel will be in our memories.

Due to the corona virus pandemic churches, schools, and businesses are closed and many of us are spending most of our time in our homes. It is a strange time. We are fighting an invisible enemy and we are not sure of what will happen.

Although COVID 19 is invisible our Savior is visible, and he is with us as we all get through this together. Let's all do this: let us rejoice in the visible Jesus, let us look in on our neighbors and friends, and let us pray for an end of this pestilence. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

God bless you,
Deacon Nick
